

WINE TOUR

The tour will introduce you the unique characteristics of Azerbaijani grapes, while exploring the wine factory that uses unique technologies to present the international world red and white wines of Azerbaijan.

This tour is an ideal alternative for lovers of traditional culinary art, connoisseurs of wine and cuisine, as well as for everyone who wants to try something new. One of these places is a winery in Novkhani village.

A trip to the winery in the outskirts of Baku offers a unique opportunity for everyone to get acquainted to winery craft, learn the culture, technology and the ancient traditions of the production of the famous Azerbaijani wines and observe the production process.

The winery industry spans well over such Azerbaijani regions like Ismaili, Gabala and Ganja.
